

EXODUS 1

SEMILLA AXIS

CREWS - SEASON 3

Objective: To understand the main protagonist in the book of Exodus and the biblical narrative in general.

Ice Breaker:

1. How many times have you and your family moved? (home, state or country),
 - a. which has been the most difficult? Why?
2. Have you ever had a boss who has made your life impossible? How did he/she do it? How did you respond to it?

To Observe In The Text:

1. What connection do you find between VV.1-7 and the book of Genesis?  The idea is to establish context, to better understand the story behind Exodus.
2. Let's read VV.1-14 and discuss what was Pharaoh's wisdom based upon?
3. In what ways do VV.15-19 describe the midwife's fear of God?
4. At the end of this story (and knowing a little about the story of Moses), who would you say came out with "shorter end of the stick"? Read VV.20-22

Application Questions:

1. If life, multiplication and growth depend on God, what would you say is your role in your spiritual life? How do you think God wants to use you to grow His Church?
2. How many times a week do you find yourself "challenging" the wisdom of God, and trusting in your own wisdom?
3. Mention something that you've done this week that reflects your fear of God.
